Cicada 3301 has often been referred to as “the most elaborate and mysterious puzzle of the internet age” and has been listed as one of the “top 5 eeriest, unsolved mysteries of the internet”. Many have speculated that behind Cicada is NSA, CIA etc and yet others speculate that Cicada is an alternative reality game among many other theories.

You have all wondered who we are, and so we shall now tell you. We are an international group. We have no membership rosters. We do not have a public website and we do not advertise ourselves. We are a group of individuals who have proven ourselves, much like you have, by completing this recruitment contest, and we are drawn together by common beliefs. A careful reading of the texts used in the contest would have revealed some of these beliefs: that knowledge must be free, that censorship is wrong and all those who built their reputation based on imaginary beliefs that they create for selfish profit must end. And it will.

Cicada is a technomystical order. Our philosophy is neither a religion nor a science, but a blend of spirituality, technology, science, and mysticism. We are more closely related to Demonolatry, which after the numerous texts, scripts and unpublished cryptic books (including the notorious Liber Primus) we have decoded after all these many years, we like to call our path Demonurgy.

And so it begins….

We started the Cicada project back on 2012, when a member of our order provided us with some very old, encoded family grimories. It is pointless to waste time analyzing the riddles of 2012, 2013 and 2014, because those who solve them release everything on the internet. For this reason, Cicada shut them out.
We were seeking individuals who have expert skills in a varying range of disciplines including steganography, cryptography, Gematria and ancient Mayan numerology, as well as detailed understandings of 18th century European literature. And we found them. It was at this point Cicada shuts its doors and started working.

In our order there exist no application requirements for membership, like as we see with other orders or Temples. WE choose our members. We are in almost every group and forum, even as members of other orders. We like to be involved but most of all we like to observe - even the observers! We don’t keep records of our members, most of them are in our order with aliases. We don’t run backgrounds checks or demand full transparency because we know who the persons are that we choose to become members of Cicada.

All those years that we were working and at the same time observed, we grew sick and tired of the “famous” occultists. Did you make enough money based on imaginary theories? Did you build a strong reputation based on marketing? We see these people as members of several groups, but never reply to nor help the new people on this path. If you seek help, you must buy their books! Or their online courses! This must stop. And it will! Demonic will, and does provide all the information that you need for free, who are you that you dare sell them for personal profit?

Decoding the Liber Primus gave us knowledge that even we couldn’t believe. We obtained the knowledge to work straight with the Divine, even spiritual, but most importantly by using devices. All the cultures from Ancient Greece, Egypt, Sumerians, Maya, etc, worked with the devices. Even Atlantis had a very complex mechanism, very similar to our radars. Of course we will start to release all of them in the upcoming months publicly, for free.

By far, the most popular Hierarchies with which the majority of you are working, are the Goetic and the Dukante’s hierarchies. The truth that must be told is, that the Demons from both Hierarchies are exist. For example, you will find rituals to Agathodemon in the ancient Greeks texts and religion where they honor him as the Demon of vineyards and grain fields. So, Richard Dukante didn’t discover something new, leaving his workings rooms for serious doubts. Dukante’ himself was unfortunately seen as lunatic by most of the occult community. Dukante' wrote some 25 books on demonolatry (known as the Dukante’ Grimores) but they remain as yet unpublished in the hands of his daughter, Selinda Dukante. No one has ever seen those grimoires. Do they exist? If so what information do they contain? Are they writings about the Demonic or is just random babblings of a man whom the occult community accuses as a lunatic?
We didn’t one day just up and decide to appear or create our order that we kept secret for so many years, just for fun. We appear to effect change. To share what we have found all those years with the rest of our community. We do not support Traditional Demonolatry as it stands today, secretive and exclusive. There is a marked sense of if you’re not a traditional Demonolator then you’re not worthy of learning the mysteries. This must ends. And it will.

Who decides the definition of the “Tradition”? Ten Demonolatry families about whom no one knows, with whom no one is familiar. And even if we know some of them, who gave them the right to decide and define the path and the connection with the Demonic? We neither support nor tolerate methods of oligarchy. In the upcoming months, you will have the opportunity to see with your own eyes, the lies that they have been feeding you all these years and how they used the Demonic to create highly profitable businesses for personal gain. These, the “Dedicated Demonolators”.

We already know that our statements will stir the pot and create debates. Some of you may agree, others disagree. That is called Democracy and Free Speech. Here in our order, the usual methods that the famous occultists use, like making an author disappear because that author’s work threatens that of the “famous occultists” does not work here. It is time to step back from the occult, if you see and on your own that your books don’t sell anymore. Maybe it is time to start deal with the things that make you happy! The multiple partners, your BDSM forums, the weird magical practices in your basements, etc! Allow the beginners to take the knowledge for which they are searching and deserve, and move forward to find the divinity within and emerge.

That’s all for now. In the upcoming weeks we will open Cicada to the public. We will share the rituals, the spells and all that we have gained all these years with all of you.

“Truth cannot be seen, cannot be thought, cannot be sensed, cannot be heard, cannot be smelled... Truth can be, has to be, Truth is....”
